Elephants With Human Sense

One of the big events in the Sun Bros. performances this season is the Superbly Trained Animal Ensemble. It is claimed for this section of the show, to be the surprise and wonder of all beholders. Here will be found Horses that are clowns, acrobats, musicians and dancers, Elephants with wits of human beings and with a sense of humor, these pachyderms are the sensation of every city and town visited, in fact they have appeared in all parts of Europe and the big cities of the United States, and form in all the most picturesque, laughable, comical, astounding display of elephant sagacity ever conceived. There is also a bunch of wonderfully trained bears, baboons, mules, lions, camels and zebras, in fact more trained animals than ever before seen with one single show.

The Sun Brothers' Show for this season also present many distinct European "thrillers" and novelties, including feats and features absolutely new to the American public and vastly superior to those of past seasons. The wild beast and animal display is a big affair and serves to exhibit a superb collection of the finest specimens from all parts of the jungles of Africa, India and Asia.

As usual and in vogue for nearly a quarter of a century with this show, the management is following its famous policy of allowing no gamblers, ticket scalpers, camp followers or immoral issues with the show at any time or place. Two complete performances will be given at Richmond, Wednesday, Aug. 27th.

REV. G. C. BANKS,

Pastor of the Second Christian church, this city. He will begin a series of meetings next Monday night and will have the assistance of Rev. J. L. Finnell, an able and forceful speaker and a successful young evangelist.

A Mighty Fine "Sub."

Col. W. P. Walton has been spending a few days in Richmond, looking after the editorial end of the Climax while his brother, Ed Walton, has been absent in the South. It is needless to say that Col. Walton has been running the Climax up to the hilt. There is no body in the State who knows better how to do a thing of that sort and there are mighty few editors who can grind out as much first-class copy. Ed Walton, by the way, is making a live newspaper out of the Climax, and has done the people of Richmond a service in shaking up the dry bones of journalism in that ancient and conservative municipality. Keep it up, Ed. They need you up there.—Elizabethtown News.

We receive every morning a full line of green vegetables and would be glad to supply your wants. Phone 72 & 141 Covington Thorpe Co. 57-1f.

Mistaken Philanthropy.

Down in Texas, sympathetic Democrats, taking Secretary Bryan's assertion that he cannot live on a salary of one thousand dollars a month at its face value, are proposing to raise fifty thousand dollars for him by private subscription, and already four thousand dollars have been contributed by men more greatly possessed of credulity than common sense.

That a public servant should be well paid for his time and labor, all of which should be given to the government, cannot be gainsaid, but those of us whose bump of credulity is not abnormally developed take with a considerable degree of doubt the Commoner's assertion that he has to spend more than he receives in salary, even with the high cost of living, greatly inflated as it is in the capital.

Besides, Mr. Bryan is not an object of charity. He is in fact said to be a very rich man, perhaps a millionaire, with a prosperous paper and an occasional lecture netting him from $250 to $500. Mr. Bryan has asserted that his political prominence has been a great financial asset to him and that his three times nomination for the Presidency has proved very profitable in gate receipts for his lectures. This being the case, why should the hat be handed around for his benefit? It may speak well for the interest of his admirers, but Mr. Bryan could not accept such gratuity without a loss of his personal self-respect. The admiring and credulous Texans mean well, no doubt, but Mr. Bryan is very far from an object of charity, and we would suggest that if they must part with their good money, that they should devote it to objects more in need of it. Mr. Bryan has made his fortune out of politics and should not kick when he is compelled, if he is really compelled, to give up a little of it for the people's good.—W. P. Walton in the Lexington Herald.

Stanford Fair Next Week

Beginning next Wednesday, 20th, the Knights of Pythias of Stanford will entertain the people of Central Kentucky with the best stock fair ever seen in this section of the State. They have labor hard and long and have everything in ship-shape for the exhibition, which promises to be a "crackerjack" in all the world means. There are rings for all classes of stock and a liberal premium is offered in each. The Knights of Pythias are strong in Lincoln and with the membership including many of the wealthiest and most influential citizens, there is no reason why the fair should not prove a success from every standpoint. If you have not seen a catalogue and want one, write to J. F. Cummins, the clever and efficient secretary, or call at this office and get one. It is only a short distance to Stanford, as our Madison county readers well know, and we hope they will take advantage of the occasion to visit the splendid little city on the approaching occasion. A rattling good time awaits all who go.

Nominated For The Eleventh Time.

County Judge W. H. Phillips, of Jessamine county, who was renominated by the Democrats for the 11th term at the recent primary, enjoys the distinction of having held the same office continuously longer than any man in the State. When he serves out his coming term, as it is conceded he will be overwhelmingly elected in November, he will have rounded out 41 years as county judge of Jessamine county. Judge Phillips was serving as county judge when Gov. McCreary was first elected Governor. As an evidence of his popularity it may be stated that Judge Phillips in his last race for the nomination, as usual, led the candidates in the number of votes secured.—Louisville Times

L. R. Blanton Gets Coal Contract.

Smiling as if he was glad of it, and he had reason to feel good, clever Tom Reeves, of the coal firm of L. R. Blanton, told the Climax that his house had landed the contract to furnish the Eastern Normal School its coal for the coming winter. There were several bidders for the big job, and it is a feather in the cap of the firm that won.

Mr. Oldham Doing Nicely.

Word comes from Carlisle that Ronald Oldham, who left this city some weeks ago to locate in the above named town, is doing a splendid business in his adopted home, and that he is more than pleased with the people among whom he has cast his lot. He has a magnificent dry goods store there and is already enjoying a big patronage. He bought out one of the biggest stores in Nicholas county and has added greatly to his stock. Our informant says that his store is one of the prettiest and most up-to-date that he knows of in Central Kentucky.

Dead Man Wins.

Down in Fulton county, J. W. Roney and Henry P. Remley were the rival candidates for the Democratic nomination for county attorney. Mr. Remley was accidentally killed two nights before the election. His name was on the primary ballot and many of his friends did not find out about his death. Others, knowing it, determined to give their dead friend a large vote as a compliment. As a consequence, he received more votes than Mr. Roney, but the officers in one precinct declined to certify the votes cast for him. As a consequence, Mr. Roney was declared the nominee.—Bowling Green Messenger.

Nineteen May Go Back.

Only nineteen Representatives in the last Legislature were nominated at the primary of August 2. All are Democrats. They are: H. C. Blades, Bracken; L. B. Toman, Campbell; R. G. Nichols, Fayette; Elwood Hamilton, Franklin; C. W. Burton, Grant; J. G. Kelly, Hancock; W. R. Shawler, Hardin; Adam Spahn, W. J. Kuhl and W. A. Perry, Louisville; W. A. Price and Harvey J. Myers, Covington; S. F. Reed, Mason; S. H. Rogers, Marion; J. F. Fryer, Pendleton; V. D. Hammond, Simpson; A. W. Palmer, Warren, and J. A. Polin, Washington. Not a single republican member of the House was renominated, but J. G. Stoll, of Lexington, and Geo. Baker, of Muhlenburg, may be nominated by the Fusionists.

Good Bye and Good Luck.

HAVING received a most flattering offer to return to Florida, where I spent two years both pleasantly and profitably, and accept a partnership in a daily paper, and regarding it as the chance of my life to grow and accumulate in my chosen profession, I felt that I owed it to myself and my children to accept it. That acceptance could not be delayed. It was now or never, and believing that there is a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at its flood, leads on to fortune, I accepted it, after having induced my brother, Col. W. P. Walton, the well-known editor of Lexington, to take my place on the Climax.

For many reasons I regret to leave Richmond. I have formed many pleasant associations here and I will cherish to the end the memory of every act of kindness or of patronage shown me. I would not leave except to greatly benefit myself and family. Florida is the coming State of the Union and Orlando is really the future great, because of its many incomparable advantages.

With the gentleman whom I have found to be a real help in every time of trouble, as honest as he is industrious, Mr. B. Duke Gordon, in charge of the mechanical department, and my brother in the editorial chair, I feel that I will leave the Climax in thoroughly competent hands, and that somewhat assuages the sorrow of parting with it.

The change of management begins with Monday next, and a few days later I shall leave for the "Land of Sunshine and Flowers" with

A smile for those who love me

And a tear for those who hate, And whatever sky's above me, A heart for every fate.

STATISTICIANS delve into all sorts of propositions. Their latest investigation is that with the single exception of John Bunyan and Charles Scribner, no literary genius has had red locks to adorn his temple. They usually have black or dark brown hair. This is hardly important, if true. A man's genius is not determined by the color of his locks, we opine, even if they may affect his temper. Some of the greatest men we have ever known had hair so red that it would put a red-headed woodpecker to blush.

The impeachment of Gov. Sulzer, of New York, is one of the racy occurrences in the political world. The Governor says he is innocent of any and all the charges brought against him and will fight the "case" to the last ditch. It is to be hoped that he will clear his skirts entirely and will again get the good will and confidence of his people. Things look pretty squally for him just now, however, but frequently the darkest hour is but the dawn of a brighter day. Let us hope so in this case, anyway.

SOME good, crisp editorials again appear in the Standard Interior Journal, and we are glad to see them. Editor Sausley will please keep the good work going. We are for him for anything he wants, but he must not let the political game interfere with his editorial duties. He knows how to write and must write.

HOME grown watermelons are coming into Lancaster and Joe Robinson and Rob Elkin are so overjoyed they can hardly contain themselves. Richmond has been supplied with the home grown article for months. But Richmond is months ahead of Lancaster. Or any other place, we might truthfully add.

A Splendid Investment

Northern Louisiana Plantation For Sale.

This plantation contains 1,500 acres, of which 800 are in a high state of cultivation. Remainder of the place is in virgin hardwood timber, which, if worked out and sold in log at present prices, will pay twice for the land its stands on.

The soil of this place is of alluvial deposit, rich and productive. It is suitable for corn, cotton, cane, oats, alfalfa, lespedeza and red clover. This land is high, dry, well drained, and does not overflow. It is in the artesian water belt.

The property is located on good graded road, in four miles of railroad, is close to churches and good schools.

The improvements consist of an eight room, two-story residence, together with all necessary outbuildings, two mile barn, implement house, auto house, blacksmith shop, cotton gin and 25 good tenant houses.

This property, which is owned by an old gentleman, who, on account of extreme age, is desirous of retiring from farming, can be bought at the low price of $25 per acre, on very liberal terms, so that the price is included all the implements necessary for the cultivation of the place, and thirty two head of good young mules and horses.

This plantation, now stocked with high class labor, is located in the neighborhood of the large plantation recently purchased by Messrs. Thomas H. Collins and Oscar J. Patton. Also it is located in one of the best live stock sections of Louisiana, and would make an ideal stock ranch. To any one who is looking for an investment, I will say that there is no acre of this plantation that won't produce any acre you pick in Kentucky in dollars and cents when it comes to the investment.

I will take pleasure in furnishing any further information you may wish. 92 St. J. T. FARRAR, Richmond, Ky.

100 in the Shade Days

ARE HERE

Are you ready to enjoy them, or will you swelter and suffer? When you get home from a hard day's grind at the store, office or factory, you don't feel like working a palm leaf fan to keep cool, neither do you want to swelter. Then how many nights have you gone to bed but NOT to sleep, so hot you couldn't sleep. An electric fan at about one cent per hour going at slow speed will keep you cool before going to sleep and then make sleep possible. If comfort and sound sleep are worth anything to you, they surely are worth the price of the small amount of electric current that an electric fan will use. Of course an electric fan won't work in a house that isn't wired, so call on us or anybody who does wiring and get ready to REALLY ENJOY the hot days and nights that are here. Investigate our prices on fans. The manufacturers' stock is getting low, so get busy

The Spreader Sensation of the Year.
We Have the Agency For It. It Is the

Steel Frame Low Spread Manure Spreader

Have you ever seen any spreader with more or as many good features? Waist high box—easy to load; makes the shortest turns and spreads evenly at corners; spreads when turning either way; positive force feed—no rolling forward of the load when the manure is moved toward the beater; even spreading until the last forkful is spread; made in seven sizes; wide and narrow boxes; special attachments for drilling and spreading lime.

Ask us also about our new wide spread attachment which scatters manure over an area eight feet wide—a very handy and convenient device for top dressing growing corn.

The next time you are in town stop and get a catalogue. Ask us to show you this machine—to show you how it will save work and increase profits. Give us a chance to prove that the Low Spread tops them all.

Good Rains But Still Hot.

Several good rains have fallen this week but the atmosphere is still of that torrid kind that makes a fellow feel like singing other songs than "Good Old Summer Time." The rains have greatly helped that part of the crops and vegetation generally that had not entirely dried up, but the loss because of the drought will be heavy notwithstanding.

K. of P. Lodge Buys B. & L. Stock.

Mr. F. M. Silver, than whom the Climax has no better friend, dropped in this morning to tell us that at the meeting of Normal City Lodge, K. of P., last night, twenty shares of stock in the Madison County Building & Loan Association were subscribed for. And that reminds us that this stock is going like "hot cakes." Better get a small block before it is all gone.

The Colored Fair.

The colored fair is on in full blast and the colored brother is here from the salt works. A splendid lot of stock is on exhibition, the Richmond band is discoursing good music, the order is well kept, everybody is having a good time and the goose honks high. There is a dance each night and our colored population is enjoying a gala week such as many have never before experienced. Tomorrow is the last day of the exhibition and the crowd that will be on hand will tax the capacity of the big grounds on which the fair is being held.

The Drought In Garrard.

The following from the Lancaster Record is a sad but true story of the ravages the drought has wrought in Garrard county:

The drought has wrought no end of damage in Garrard county, the damage to the corn crop alone amounting to many thousands of dollars. Tobacco is seriously injured and both quantity and quality are greatly curtailed, while the meadows were almost as complete failures and hay bids fair to go as high this fall as two years ago. The hot, scorching winds of last week, while a source of relief to sweltering humanity, yet worked untold damage to the crops, far more damaging than the boiling rays of the sun, the corn blades under its influence seemed to curl up and literally parch, while tobacco, fired at the ground and continuing up the stalk, is in many cases injured beyond relief from good rains should they come.

Stanifer's Big Sale.

J. S. Stanifer, the Second and Main street clothier and gent's furnisher, takes most of our fourth page to tell of a great sale he will begin in the morning. Read what he says and see if you do not agree with us that it would be like getting wearing apparel from home, so low are the prices he quotes. The sale starts at 9 o'clock in the morning and continues ten days.

Miss Willie Gormley Dead.

Every heart in the town and county goes out to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gormley in the loss of their daughter, Miss Willie Gormley, whose death occurred in St. Louis the first of the week. This is the third daughter they have buried in a few years. May God give them strength to bear the troubles that tread each other's heels, so fast they follow. The remains were brought here Thursday and laid to rest in the Richmond Cemetery. Tuberculosis hurried the end.

Tuttle Gets Life Sentence.

Alex Tuttle, who killed Aaron Powell in Estill county, was declared guilty by a Madison county jury, mention of which was made in Tuesday's issue, and his punishment was fixed at life imprisonment. It will be remembered that the killing occurred as the two were returning from church.

The woman, Maude Tipton, indicted for the murder of Reuben Todd, a prominent Irvine merchant, will not be tried until the December term of court. Cyrus Elkin indicted Hiram Rogers for badly wounding him with a shot gun.

We handle the best Teas and Coffees in town. Give us a trial. D. R. McKinney. 70-1f

Talked Too Dam Much.

This morning in Judge Greenleaf's court a colored woman played the parrot act—talked too dam much—and as a consequence now languishes in duress vile. When fined $1 on a minor offense she began to shoot off her mouth. For this the judge added a dollar. The woman continued to talk and Judge to fine until the amount reached $10. At this point Judge Greenleaf, seeing that the only way to rid himself of the woman's tongue, ordered her to jail p. d. q. How few of us know that silence is golden and how many imitate the talking bird. Pity 'tis, true.

Lexington Fair.

The Lexington Fair is in progress this week and is drawing like a porous plaster. Civil Service Examination At Danville Saturday.

The first civil service examination since the inauguration of President Wilson will be held in Danville tomorrow. Over 175 Democrats have made application to take the examination. There are about 90 jobs under the Danville collector, so if all who take the examination pass, there will be a large number on the waiting list.

Death of Mrs. Irvine Roberts.

Mrs. Irvine Roberts, aged 72, died at the Gibson Infirmary yesterday morning. Some weeks ago while at Danville visiting a relative she fell and sustained a dislocated hip. Complications set up and she had been in a distressing condition since. Deceased was the relict of Mr. Irvine Roberts, one of Madison county's substantial citizens, and she is survived by three children: Mr. Burton Roberts, the well known liveryman of this city, Mrs. C. C. Coy, of the county, and Mrs. Ada Farris, of Lexington. She was a devout member of the Christian church for many years and was a truly good woman. The remains were taken to the home near Ruthven yesterday afternoon and on tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock her former pastor, Rev. O. Young, will preach her funeral at 10 o'clock in the Danville church, which she attended so many years. The burial will follow in the Richmond Cemetery. Her taking away occasions universal sorrow, for she was greatly beloved by a large acquaintance. May those who feel the blow most keenly realize that their loss is her eternal gain; that her trials are over and her rest is won.

The Democratic caucus of the Senate Thursday night decided that Congress would stay in session until the regular session begins if necessary to dispose of tariff and currency legislation.

We = Don't = Sell = "Cheap" = Tailoring!

Primarily because our customers are not the "cheap" kind—they have learned from costly experience elsewhere that the best is the most economical. We have never been obliged to represent adulterated fabrics as "pure wool" nor to offer "sweat shop" garments with the argument that we can save you money through using poorly-paid, inexperienced help

"Cheap" clothes like "cheap" jewelry, soon show their actual worth and the man who is deceived thereby is not wise. Everything is sold only according to its relative worth—you rarely get more than what you actually pay for

If we offered you "strictly pure" cream butter at 15c a pound and you later found it to be a cheap oleomargarine, you'd lose no time in exposing us. When the "pure wool" clothes law goes into effect, things will be different

Every Ed. V. Price & Co. tailored-to-order suit we sell has our absolute guarantee of quality—if the coat front breaks or linings wear out within one year they will be replaced free. We solicit your business on straight Quality-Value basis, not on the "cheap" price plan. Which is the better?

Three Meet Horrible Death.

Many of our people will doubtless remember J. B. Borders, who got out an industrial edition of the Climax some six or eight years ago. He and his wife and six-year-old daughter, Isabel, met a horrible death at Columbus, O., Tuesday. They were driving in an auto, when in the turn, the car backed through the East Road street bridge. The machine caught fire and the three, pinned under the great weight of the automobile, which had turned turtle, were cremated. Dispatches state that carelessness is believed to be the cause of the loss of life and accident. Mr. Borders was a fine young man, just 32 years old, and his wife, a most attractive woman. Their friends here greatly sorrow at their tragic end.

Kaiser Has 3,000 Suits.

The German Emperor has more uniforms than any other sovereign, so great are the number of military, naval and other titles he owns in his own and other countries.

His uniforms, which have been computed at nearly 3,000 in all, are in charge of his head valet, who has twelve other valets under him. The valet requires to be an expert on military uniform, for it is no light task to remember the accessories in the way of swords, epaulettes, helmets, etc., to go with nearly 3,000 uniforms, for each detail must be exact and a mistake in regard to this would cost him his place.

It is, perhaps, on the occasion of his royal master's visits to foreign countries that the resources of the head valet are taxed to their utmost. The Kaiser insists on always dressing the part correctly. On his visits to England much astonishment has been expressed at his skill as a quick change artist.

On one occasion when his yacht, the Hohenzollern, was off the British coast, the officials stationed at Port Victoria to receive him, sighted him through marine glasses standing on the bridge in the uniform of a German General. Great was their astonishment when, on landing barely ten minutes later, he greeted them dressed as an English Admiral. He was escorted to his special train, wherein he disappeared for a few minutes, walking into the saloon in the uniform of the First Royal Dragoons. Finally, upon arriving in London, he stepped off the train in the conventional frock coat and top hat of an English gentleman.

Church Notes

Seventh-day adventists are holding their annual camp meeting on the Ford Institute grounds at Nicholasville.

The Union services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 7:15. Dr. E. B. Barnes will preach. The singers of the several choirs are requested to come immediately to the front and assist in the singing. Don't wait for a special invitation

The China agency of the American Bible Society reports sent out for the first six months 1,000,000 Bibles, Testaments and portions of the scriptures. It seems that the new republic of China is opening her doors wide for the entrance of the words of life.

Miss Bennett has for a long time had it in her heart to establish a farm for negro boys, so at our recent great mission meeting at Waynesville she made an earnest appeal for it when the opportunity was presented at the woman's meeting by the lakeside. As a result, $2,000 on the annuity plan was given by a Kentucky lady. Another Kentucky lady pledged another thousand. Before the session closed a gentleman from Mississippi presented the board with a pledge of 500 acres of land to be located in whatever part of Mississippi it was thought best to establish the school. This prompt reply to her earnest appeal is but a promise of greater things that her faith is claiming.—Central Methodist Advocate.

Rev. J. L. Fennell, a student of Transylvania University, will begin a protracted meeting at the Second Christian church, on Big Hill avenue, next Monday, Aug. 18. He is a young man of rare ability and splendid personality. Having sung for evangelists in the past, he will do both singing and preaching. Recently he closed a meeting at Sanders, this State, where he has charge of a church, with the extraordinary results of 30 additions. His beautiful character and high christian ideals have always attracted people to him. His sister, Miss Nellie Fennell, will assist him in the music. Mr. Fennell has marked ability as a chorus leader, which will add much to the enthusiasm of the services, which will begin daily at 7:30 p. m., with two services on Sunday. The public is cordially invited to be present and help make the meeting a success.

Destroys Still And Makes Arrests.

Deputy Marshal W. M. Mays was up in Lee county the other day and as a result of his visit, there is one less illicit distillery there. He destroyed a small concern on Sinking Branch, but found nobody near the place and made no arrest. He made arrangements by which the owners will be brought to justice before long. However, Mr. Mays arrested Alford Reynolds, who has been judging the officers for the past two years. Reynolds was wanted for violation of the internal revenue laws and was working with a threshing gang in Jessamine when arrested. He was placed in jail here. Homer Wallace, for bootlegging, was arrested by Mr. Mays at Irvine. He gave a cash bond for his appearance before Commissioner Lambert, on the 22d. Officer Mays doesn't make much about his work, but when he goes after a party he almost invariably brings him back, or at least knows the reason why he does not.

The Coming Maude.

Maude Muller, one day, eating fudge. Looked up and saw the county judge. Maude was a pretty girl, all right. His honor fell in love at sight.

And when about a month had fled, Maude promised that the judge she'd wed.

Then o'er the judge's pathway came A wealthy, proud and stately dame. The judge, then, for ambition's sake, Poor little Maude resolved to shake.

An ardent suffragette was Maude, Chairwoman of the county board. "I'll get square," Maude said, "without fail."

So told her party her sad tale. Judge had elected been in fall: In spring they voted his recall. The haunted dame refused to wed. "You are no longer judge," she said.

This lesson sad he learned, you bet: "Don't monkey with a suffragette!" Mothers! Have Your Children Worms?

Are they feverish, restless, nervous, irritable, dizzy or constipated? Do they continually pick their nose or grind their teeth? Have they cramping pains, irregular and ravenous appetites? These are all signs of worms. Worms not only cause your child suffering, but stunt its mind and growth. Give "Kickapoo Worm Killer" at once. It kills and removes the worms, improves your child's appetite, regulates stomach, liver and bowels. The symptoms disappear and your child is made happy and healthy as nature intended.
